

Linda Taylor
Senior Client Executive
ltaylor@bbbuffalo.com

200 John James Audubon Parkway

Amherst, NY 14228

(716) 995-5620x 321

Background

Ms. Taylor comes to Brown & Brown of New York, Inc with over 20 years of experience in senior leadership roles and risk management experience. Most recently, Ms. Taylor was Vice President of Administration at Presbyterian Homes of Western New York, Inc., a long-term care facility. Prior to Presbyterian Homes, Ms. Taylor was Executive Director of NYAHSA Services, Inc. of Albany, NY, where she developed insurance programs, a workers' compensation safety group and a self-insured workers' compensation trust for over 500 not for profit providers of long term care services. Linda's currently responsible for the development of strategic risk management and benefit programs for commercial businesses.

Objective

Assist clients in the design, negotiation and implementation of cost controlling "tools" for their health and welfare insurance plans.

Industry Recognition

- Strategic Risk Management
- Employee Benefit Consulting Programs

Areas of Expertise

- Workers' Compensation
- Long Term and Short Term Disability
- Long Term Care Facilities
- Not-for-Profit Organizations

Community Involvement

- Sister of St. Francis
-